

Covid-19 (Coronavirus) Onsite Testing

– Conditions of Use

You agree that by using the Covid-19 testing services you agree to and accept these Conditions of Use. These Conditions of Use will prevail over any other terms and conditions provided to you in relation to the test.

The testing services which are available for Test on Departure, Mandatory Testing for Inbound UK Arrival Travel Test to Release and other types of testing services include:

Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR) Swab & Saliva Test
Antigen Swab Test

The list of offered tests may change at short notice and is updated in line with clinical improvements and government regulations.

THE TESTS & SAMPLING METHODS

PCR and Antigen tests

These tests are all swab tests. The purpose of these is to pick up the presence of the actual virus.

Collecting the sample will take approximately 3 minutes and will require one of our trained staff taking a sample from you. For Antigen tests these will be from each nostril and for PCR tests from both sides of the throat and nostrils. The throat will be swabbed first.

When a nasal swab is used it will be gently inserted about 2.5 cm into the nostril, circled 5 times and then repeated in the other nostril. You may feel the need to sneeze and if so, we will provide tissues.

For throat swabs, a swab is wiped over the back of the mouth from one tonsillar area to the other one. In some cases, this causes an unpleasant but harmless gagging sensation. If you find either procedure too uncomfortable, please raise your hand and the swabber will stop.

Complications are very rare but could result in nose bleeds and breaking of swabs.

To reduce the risks of complications we will not swab a nostril if any of the following apply

1. Facial or Skull base fractures within the last 8 weeks

2. Nasal tumour
3. Sinus surgery within the last 12 months
4. You are on a blood thinning medication (including aspirin) and have a history of nose bleeds.
5. Blood is found in the nostril at the time of testing.

In these situations, we will either swab the other nostril or do a throat swab.

PCR Saliva

Collecting the sample takes approximately 3 minutes and will require you to provide sufficient saliva (as per the usage instructions on the kit). The purpose of the test is to pick up the presence of the actual virus in the saliva.

To avoid test contamination, it is important that you do not smoke, eat or drink (anything other than water), chew gum, or brush your teeth for at least 30 minutes before any of these tests,

Before any of these tests, the swabber will confirm that you understand the test procedure and give you an opportunity to ask any questions

For tests taken in advance of flight departures we aim to provide results within the following estimated timescales.

- Rapid PCR – 90-180 mins
- PCR – 48 hours
- Premium PCR – 8am next day
- Antigen – 45 -60 mins

These results timescales are not guaranteed and we do not accept any liability for any costs you may incur as a result of: a delayed test result, an inconclusive test result, a false positive/negative result or tests/results being damaged or lost.

A positive result indicates that the test has detected the presence of Covid-19 virus. A negative result means that the test has not detected evidence of the Covid-19 virus. Testing is a biological process involving significant complexity and variability, and consequently no testing regime for Covid-19 is 100% accurate in all cases. A negative result does not guarantee that the test subject is free of the Covid-19 virus, nor does a positive result guarantee that the test subject has active, infectious Covid-19. All testing is conducted on this basis.

Test results and any comments given by us on the results are for information only. They are not a clinical diagnosis. They are not a replacement for a full and proper medical investigation and/or a doctor's advice. Our comments are based solely on the results in relation to what are considered normal ranges in the general population. If you have any concerns at all regarding any aspect of your health or your test results you should discuss them directly with your GP or a doctor.

Based on the results of your test(s) we may advise that you purchase a follow-up test or that you see your GP for further investigation or both. You agree that you are solely responsible for acting on such guidance, we accept no liability if you choose not to do so.
